We welcome each one of you who visit with us today. If you have any questions, please contact the people at the Information Tables.

Immediately following The Service, a picture of the Anniversary Congregation will be taken on the front steps of the church. You will be ushered out and placed for the picture.

Punch will be served by the women of the congregation following the picture taking.

All present are asked to wear a name tag. Please register at the registration tables. We wish to have a record of all present for this day.

Serving lines for dinner will go down the West stairway. The East room upstairs is reserved for our confirmation guests confirmed before 1900.

You are all invited to open house at the parsonage. Address: 105 E. State Street, across the street from the church and turn right to the third house.

Remembrances from this day:

The Anniversary Book - $5.00

Note cards and envelopes picturing the present church and the new church - $1.25

You may order one of the pictures taken this morning. Cost will be announced.

These items may be purchased at the appointed tables.
